

After boot camp in San Diego in 1994, Anthony Alvo was ordered to Twentynine Palms, CA to complete Radio Operator's course and was subsequently stationed in Twentynine Palms at a base unit called "Tactical Training Exercise and Control Group" assisting with day-to-day operations for Combined Armed Exercises (a.k.a. CAX).

After his first enlistment, he became a police officer for the Los Angeles Police Department and then transferred to the Chino Police Department, Chino, CA.

In 2003, while serving in the Marine Corps Reserves, he was activated in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom and the Global War Against Terrorism and was attached to the I MEF G6 at Camp Pendleton. In 2004, Anthony conducted one overseas tour in Fallujah, Iraq.

After serving for 12 years for both active duty and reserves, he exited the Marine Corps in 2006. In 2009, Anthony was medically retired due to an on-duty injury and transitioned to a police dispatcher for the Chino Police Department and the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department. He was a police dispatcher for 12 years.

After earning a master's degree in education and a teaching credential in Career and Technical Education, Anthony was recruited to teach Law Enforcement courses for the Rialto Unified School District in Rialto, CA.

After six years of teaching at Rialto High School, Anthony moved his family from Southern California to retire in the lovely green hills of Lenoir City, TN.

Anthony is married to his beautiful wife Amy. Together they have six children, two of which are still teenagers and live with Anthony and Amy. Anthony has been a member of the Marine Corps League Knoxville #924 Detachment for one year and is the current Special Projects and Outreach Coordinator.
